Sunrise O'r the River

Limited Edition Series

BY DALE GLASGOW

The sunrise of early summer is a special time we all enjoy. The mist of the morn, the gentle sun, the peace that urges us to discover who we really are.

This is that Sunrise O'r the River when John Smith sailed up the Rappahannock near Frederick-sburg & Stafford's fall line in the summer of 1608. John Smith and his party nailed three brass crosses to a large tree, claiming the land for Christ and King James I of England.
